

Side Letter of Agreement between the AAUP-AFT and the Rutgers University regarding the Infosilem Course Scheduling Platform

The AAUP-AFT and the University agree as follows:

1. The University shall provide the AAUP-AFT with information from the results of the third Simulation of the Infosilem Course Scheduling System, including demonstrations of the results obtained in certain departments, no later than June 1, 2019.
2. Within thirty (30) calendar days following the completion of Simulation 4, the University shall provide the AAUP-AFT with information from the results of that simulation. The University shall provide individual faculty members, upon request of the individual faculty member, their individual schedule generated by the fourth simulation.
3. Within 30 calendar days from the execution of this Side Letter, the University and the AAUP-AFT shall, consistent with applicable law, engage in mid-contract negotiations in good faith in an effort to reach an agreement on mandatory subjects of negotiations relating to the impact of the implementation of Infosilem. The University also agrees that it will discuss with the AAUP-AFT subjects relating to the implementation of Infosilem that are not mandatory subjects of negotiations.
4. The AAUP-AFT agrees to withdraw the unfair practice charge filed by the AAUP-AFT (PERC Docket No. CO-2019-231) relating to Infosilem.
5. Nothing in this Side Letter waives or limits the right of the AAUP-AFT to request additional information about Infosilem that is not specifically referenced in this Side Letter.
